| | II. |

Pursuant to LR IA 6-1, Defendant/Counterclaimant Dr. Laila Mintas ("Dr. Mintas"), by and through her counsel of record, Naylor & Braster, hereby files this Motion to Extend Time to File Response to Countermotion for Sanctions ("Countermotion for Sanctions"). This is Dr. Mintas' first requested extension. PlayUp Inc.'s Countermotion for Sanctions was filed on November 15, 2022. (ECF No. 257). Dr. Mintas respectfully requests a 3-day extension or until December 2, 2022, to file her response. This extension is sought in good faith and not to cause delay or prejudice to any party but rather due to the following factors as set forth in the accompanying declarations of Jennifer L. Braster, Benjamin Gordon, and Meredith Markwell:

- 1. Between November 21, 2022 and November 29, 2022, Dr. Mintas has four briefs due in this matter: Reply In Support of Motion to Disqualify (ECF No. 238) (currently due November 21, 2022), Reply In Support of Renewed Motion for Discovery Sanctions (currently due November 21, 2022) (ECF No. 239), Response to PlayUp Inc.'s Motion for Sanctions Pursuant to Rule 11 (currently due November 28, 2022) (ECF No. 246), and Response to PlayUp Inc.'s Countermotion for Sanctions (ECF No. 257) (currently due November 29, 2022).
- 2. Dr. Mintas requested an extension until December 2, 2022, to file her response to the Countermotion for Sanctions as well as various extensions for the other briefs as set forth in Exhibit 1 to Ms. Braster's declaration.
- 3. PlayUp Inc.'s counsel agreed to this requested extension so long as PlayUp Inc. is provided the same extension for the reply. Dr. Mintas has no objection to that request. (Exhibit 1).
- 4. This request is sought for the following reasons:
 - a. Lead counsel, Jennifer Braster, was in an all-day mediation on November 15, 2022. (Braster Decl. at ¶ 4).
 - b. Lead counsel, Jennifer Braster, has a continued trial on November 21 and 22, 2022. (Id. at ¶ 5).
